JUNEAU YACHT CLUB

Volume 16, Issue 1

COMMODORE'S CORNER

By Tom Satre, 2005 Commodore

Editor's Note:

Unfortunately, the Commodore is out of town and could not provide a commentary at this time.

As a past Commodore, I suspect he is concerned with building membership, creating enthusiasm for the club's activities and getting ready for the summer season. I hope each of us can find a little time to devote to making the Juneau Yacht Club better., whether it's assisting in Spring Cleanup and club maintenance, volunteering for Salmon Derby Patrol, or just inviting boaters and friends to participate and talking up the club whenever possible.

The Treasurer would also like to take this time to remind everyone that membership dues are due now. Tracy will be taking your checks or cash at this Tuesday's meeting. I would also like to remind everyone that it would be a perfect opportunity to make sure your mailing address, phone number and other details are up to date.

NAUTICAL

TID-BITS

Dead Man's Chest - A true location now called Dead Chest Island in the Virgin Islands. Robert Louis Stevenson ran across the reference while reading "At Last: A Christmas in the West Indies", a travel book by Charles Kingsley. Stevenson used the phrase in his book "Treasure Island", combining it with a little sea-ditty as thus:

Fifteen men on the dead man's chest
Yo-ho-ho, and a bottle of rum!
Drink and the devil had done for the rest.
