THE COMMODORE'S CORNER

by LAWRENCE LEE OLDAKER,
Outgoing Commodore

HUZZA ! The days are getting longer, hinting that we have more hours for pleasures and reminding us that we are getting closer to sailing season. These are good reasons to meet on the Ides (15 January) at our clubhouse for "a New Year's party." Past Commodore Kurt Dzinich will be on duty in the bar. Past Commodore Tom Satre and his culinary crewe (Tish Satre, Pam and Dick Knapp, Marjorie Quisenberry, Mary Lee and Jay Ellis, Beverly and Larry Schutt, and Sharon Kelly) will perform their wizardry in the galley. Beers and cheers begin at six o'clock.

We closed our last year in great style by eating a record poundage of prime beef, by filling a second table with TOYS FOR TOYS gifts for area children, and by adding monies and volunteered time to the RACHAEL MacLEOD CHRISTMAS BOX PROGRAM. Yes, we were good and we were very deserving of the merry Christmastide we shared.

During the coming dinner-meeting we will honor the ancient mariner's rite of installing the 2008 officers that were universally acclaimed at the December get-together. Elections Master Dean Rasmussen will supervise the passing of the Commodore's Coat to the incoming Commodore, Don Kubley. The new head sailor in his nautical vestments and with a full set of keys to the club will then bring all of the officers on board. It promises to be a photo opportunity. Be sure to bring your "baby brownie" or a more recent digital camera to record the event.
