Volume 18, Issue 3

COMMODORE'S CORNER

By L.L. Oldaker 2007 Commodore

Although it continues to snow and the roadway mounds of the white loveliness reaching skyward, the official JYC weather beetle is calling for a heartwarming monthly meeting (TUESDAY, March 20), followed by the Vernal Equinox on next day (WEDNESDAY, March 21). Our guest speaker is a true find, a local sailor, and a scholar that plans to provide a little-known story of a 225-foot Confederate ship that wrecked havoc among the Yankee whalers who were plying Alaskan waters near Little Diomed. Lynn Schooler wrote "The Last Shot: The Incredible Story of the CSS Shenandoah and the True Conclusion of the Civil War." Lynn, fresh from a Hawaiian vacation, has agreed to share this incredible view of "the war between the states" to our members and guests for fifteen minutes, then field questions from our stunned audience.

Marvel at Sailor Schooler's sun tan, and then think about SPRING that will follow our meeting by a few hours. Be sure to bring a guest and a future club member.

Appreciation is extended to those that created and staffed our JYC table at the annual Juneau Boat Show, held at Centennial Hall, 16-18 March. Thanx to Dean Rasmussen and Dave Carnes with board members for serving Friday, kudos to Captain Gerald Gottshall and the sailing squadron for Saturday chores, and to Captain Tom Satre and the power squadron for the closing Sunday services.

A reminder of coming events: Thursday, March 22, 5:30 p.m. board meeting at the Breakwater's Captain Room; Friday, March 23, JYC Social Hour with Kurt Dzinich in the Graham Room, 5-7:00 p.m.; and Friday, March 23, Sailing Squadron Meeting in the Graham Room, beginning at 7:00 p.m.

Enjoy the snow, the town's new stock of daffodils, and the new marine catalogues that expand our postal deliveries. We will be afloat "soon."

I look forward to seeing you at the Boat Show and the March meetings.
